LET GO AND LET GOD

Many twelve-step programs use the phrase “Let go and let God.” In all their simplicity, these five words are the heart of today’s readings. For people who struggle with addictive behavior, these words plainly remind us that we can’t manage, control, or manipulate certain areas of our lives. How many times can we look back in our lives and find evidence of some plan at work other than our own? These are the moments when, for whatever reasons, we let someone greater than ourselves work the plan. We probably didn’t even recognize at the time that we were letting go of anything, but in retrospect, we see God’s hand and loving presence. It is our awareness of these moments that gives us the courage and initiative to let go again later on. It is this courage and initiative that are highlighted in today’s readings. We come to call it “faith.”

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — In spite of violence, destruction, and ruin, the just person, because of faith, will live (Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4).

Psalms — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — Bear hardship with the strength that comes from God (2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14).

Gospel — Lord, increase our faith! (Luke 17:5-10).

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time October 2, 2016

Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the LORD who made us.

TIME, TALENT & TREASURE—This is where the parishioners, lots and lots of parishioners, come in to keep the new Immaculata Center company. Best guesstimate at this time, is somewhere between 140 to 160 persons. It's not hard to figure: 10 hours a day 7 days a week, 5 two hour, 2 person shifts per day, plus some back up. It's true we need time and talent, but no treasure for this operation. Watch for more information. R. Reid 625.1775
