THE MERCY, POWER, AND LOVE OF GOD

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God’s power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God’s people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God’s might, but is a direct result of God’s primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency?

Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God’s mercy, power, and love. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — You taught your people that those who are just must likewise be kind (Wisdom 12:13, 16-19).

Psalm — Lord, you are good and forgiving (Psalm 86).

Second Reading — The Spirit comes to aid us in our weakness (Romans 8:26-27).

Gospel — Jesus proposes parables to the crowds, teaching them of the reign of God (Matthew 13:24-43 [24-30]).

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 23, 2017

Those who are just must be kind.

— Wisdom 12:19

Coffee social after the 7 & 8:30am Mass in the gym.

RCIA Classes

Are You Or Do You Know Someone Who...

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in an accepting and warm setting. For information, please contact the church office 626-2343. Classes begin in September.

Pass On the Good News!

Over 300 children, PreK-3 through 8th grade, will sign up this fall to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. At this time, over 100 of these children have no catechist to teach them. You can help them learn and grow in faith by becoming a catechist for our Children's Faith Formation program. As you nurture the faith of our young students, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist said, "I learn so much from the children!" We provide you with training, materials, and support. Classes begin September 10. If interested or for more information, contact Sam Di Benedetto at 626-2343 or sam@ctkdaphne.org.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

At the 8:30 am Mass next Sunday (30), the Knights have their Quarterly Mass in which they will be the Greeters, Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors during Mass. There will also be reserved pews in the front of the church for Knights and their families to worship together. Additionally, the Knights will have a table set up in the gym after Mass with information about the Knights of Columbus organization. Please stop by, meet the Knights, and learn about this 1.8 million member, worldwide Catholic organization.

We are happy to announce that Christ the King Parish has purchased from the Baptist Church, the 2 acre vacant lot at 6th Street and College Avenue. This is property we have been interested in acquiring for some time, and are thankful that the opportunity to do so came our way. We look forward to putting it to good use. This means that our second collection will continue in an effort to help defray the costs incurred. Please do all you can do to help.
